A few minutes later he said: "The uptown districts are disappointing."

Mr. Maxet went into an inner room and messengers carried the returns to him there. The gloom settled. With every report a new scowl grew on Quigg's face. The phrase "you did bad work there," became a frequent saintation to hearers of messages.

At 9 p. m., when returns had been reported from twenty to thirty-five districts Quigg said: "It looks like 200 for Stewart."

Upper Broadway was crowded last night With a throng eager to learn the election news. From Twenty-third street to Forty. second street, both sides of Broadway were Plurality..... filled after 6 o'clock with a howling, whoop-

It was a Democratic throng, and it emitted wild whoops of triumph whenever a newspaper bulletin told the news of newspaper bulletin told the news of Democratic victory, either here or somewhere else. It was particularly interested in the defeat of Mazet, in McLean's fight for the Governorship of Ohio and in the Democratic vote in Boston. The proportion of women in the Broadway crowd was large.

The multitude continued to flow back and forth, for twenty blocks, until midnight.

nue, for the purpose of voting. His vote was chailenged by the Republican captain who ordered Deputy Edgar A. Waitney to arrest Davis. Whitney, it is alleged, fore the ballot from the hands of Davis, and took him before Magistrate Pool in the West Side Police Court, where he was charged with illegal registration. He was held in $500 for further examination, and was promptly balled out.

Davis at once went back to the polling place and tried again to vote. Again Whitney arrested him and took him to court, charging him this time with illegal voting. Magistrate Pool ordered the deputy to take Davis back to the polling place and allow him to swear in his vote. The inspectors refused to allow him to do this, and he was placed under arrest for the third time.

The Magistrate gave the deputy the inspectors refused to allow him to do this, and he was placed under arrest for the third time.

The Magistrate gave the deputy the same instructions as before. This time Davis consulted his lawyer. Eugene Bush, who got an affidavit from his client and obtained a writ of mandamus from Justice Bischoff. Davis presented this to the Board of Inspectors, who refused to obey the order of the court. For the fourth time Davis was arrested and haled to court. Adrian Kiernan, one of the Democratic counsel, out of patience, instructed Davis to make a complaint against Deputy Whit ney for intimidation, on the ground that the deputy had violated section 41 K, of the Penal Code. Davis swore to the compliant, and Whitney was arrested in court by Policeman Sadlier, of the court squad.

Whitney's examination was set down for Thursday morning, and he was paroled on his own recognizance. To the questions of Lawyer Kiernan, Deputy Whitney said that before being appointed a deputy superintendent he was a defective for the Mazet committee.

Davis is a professional trick bicyclist and had been on the stage since he was nine years old. He is now only twenty-two, ared yesterday was his first attempt to vote.

MRS. SORCHAN WINS

Chosen for the School Board.

Davis lost his vote and was arrested four the School Board. The maining of a woman on the School Board was an innovation. It was not sanctioned by the straight-laced members of both parties, and her defeat was predicted.

Nine candidates were placed in nominations of both parties, and her defeat was predicted.
